

NASFAA Dallas Martin Scholarship Program Information

NASFAA and Dallas Martin are forever linked as positive advocates for students, higher education and fair funding. In July, 2016, NASFAA celebrated 50 years of fostering positive student success.

This one-time scholarship is funded by former NASFAA presidents and chairs who continue to believe in the success of the USA rests on the shoulders of a well-educated society.

Any degree seeking, full time student is eligible to apply. However, preference will be given to current, full time employees working in a financial aid department at a recognized post-secondary educational institution.

This is a one-time scholarship award and is available for the 2017-18 academic year.
Award amounts may vary.

Recipient(s) must file the 2017-18 Free Application for Federal Student Assistance (FAFSA), demonstrate need at the attending school and be an otherwise eligible student, as deemed by Federal Regulations.
