

Cringe quiz: Are you fluent in Gen-Z office speak?

- A. Name
- B. School or Organization you are from
- C. Fun Fact about You
- D. Lingo Word

1. Slaps

- a. Excellent or amazing

2. Snatched

- a. Fierce or on point

3. Bussin'

- a. Really good

4. Bet

- a. "Bet" is slang that has an affirmative meaning. If someone asks if you want to do something, saying "bet" means something like "cool!" or "I'm down" to do whatever.

5. Drip

- a. "Drip" used to mean something unattractive or dull, but now it refers to your look or style. So if someone compliments your "drip," it means that you look good or your style looks good.

6. No Cap

- a. No lie, for real

7. What does "hits different" mean?

- a. When something "hits different," something has such a severe or profound effect that it's on a new level. The phrase "hits different" can be applied to new music, movies, or anything that can have that strong of an effect on someone.

8. Low-key

- a. "lowkey" is meant to be used when someone is into something, but wouldn't really want others to know. They would do this by being discreet, secretive, modest, or timid.

9. Say less

- a. If someone tells you “say less,” they’re not necessarily telling you to stop talking. It’s more that they understand what you’re saying but in a way that shows they get where you’re coming from with your message.

10. Cap

- a. Lie or falsehood

11. Sus

- a. suspicious, or suspect,

12. Bop

- a. If someone tells you that something is a “bop,” they mean that they’re listening to an enjoyable song. They are usually songs that have lots of bass or a unique melody.

13. Glow up

- a. When someone tells you that they had a “glow up,” they’re usually referring to some sort of makeover or transformation in their physical appearance. This could be getting a haircut, getting rid of acne, or getting braces off.

14. Spilling the Tea

- a. Gossiping

15. Slay

- a. “Slay” is a slang term used to describe someone who has done so exceptionally well that they killed it, hence “slay.”

16. What does it mean if something is “basic”?

- a. Unoriginal

17. Dub

- a. “Dub” is the first syllable in the letter “W” which is now slang for win.

18. Extra

- a. 'Extra' means trying too hard, over the top, excessive, maybe a little dramatic.

19. Wig

- a. "Wig" is a Gen Z phrase that is usually meant to refer to something that is amazing or exciting. It comes from the idea that someone is so blown away that their wig flew off

20. And I oop

- a. Made a mistake

21. Ghosting

- a. This refers to when someone suddenly starts ignoring another person they are dating, usually by their smartphone.

22. Swole

- a. This means they want to be buff, ripped, muscular, fit, or generally in shape.

23. Finna

- a. The term is used to refer to when someone is planning to do something.
- b. Finna do something.

24. Gucci

- a. The term "Gucci" is used when something is cool or good.

25. Shook

- a. When someone mentions that they are "shook," they are shocked by something they saw or heard. It'll usually be said when someone shares big news.

26. Yeet

- a. It's most commonly said when someone is throwing an object with as much force as they can.

27. Chuegy

- a. Uncool

28. Fire

- a. There are actually a lot of words that can be used to say something is cool or amazing

29. Savage

- a. term "savage" is used when someone is calling another harsh, mean-spirited, or wild.

30. Clap Back

- a. "clap back" is when someone responds to an insult with an even better insult.

31. Ship

- a. The term refers to when people will pair a couple they want to be together

32. Main Character

- a. “Main character” is a term that originated on the social media app TikTok. It refers to someone who acts like they are the main character and everything revolves around them.

33. Snack

- a. Attractive

34. Living Rent Free

- a. When you can't stop thinking or obsessing over something that happened or someone, it's as if they are metaphorically “living rent-free” in your head.

35. I'm dead

- a. If someone says, “I'm dead,” it's usually in response to something so hilarious that they've “died” of laughter. When used in speech, it can take the place of actual laughter and instead mean that something said was funny.

36. Flex

- a. A “flex” is when someone does something to show off their accomplishments or talents. Much like “flexing your muscles,” you're showing off what all your hard work has accomplished and how proud you are of yourself.

37. Salty

- a. If you feel salty, it means that you are jealous.

38. Fam

- a. Fam is a shorter word for family, but don't be fooled—it can be used to describe your friends

39. CEO

- a. If you're the CEO of something, it means you've mastered it or you're a pro.

40. Vibe Check

- a. When something is unique or better than the usual.